Your Initial Meeting

Thank you for booking your Initial Meeting with us and we look forward to meeting you soon. So you know what standards to expect from us, the following diagram will help to explain our unique Initial Meeting Process.

1

Four working days after the Welcome Pack has been sent out to you, one of the team will call to confirm that you have received the Welcome Pack and if you have any questions regarding the Initial Meeting Questionnaire.

2

One working day prior to your scheduled Initial Meeting, one of our team will call to remind you of your appointment and let you know that you will have your own car parking space reserved for you, with your name on it, just outside of our offices.

3

On arrival at our office you will be introduced to the Redwood Team before your Initial Meeting with your Adviser which will last approximately 45 minutes.

4

At the end of your meeting, you will then have the opportunity to arrange your next Meeting.

5

With your next meeting arrange, you'll be given your Redwood Meeting Folder before you leave, to take away with you and complete in readiness for your next meeting, where you will have a more detailed discussion on the areas that you wish to focus on now.
